PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTION PROPOSALS

Pursuant to the Corporate Enterprises Act, shareholders representing, at least, three percent of the share capital may submit substantiated proposed resolutions on matters already included or that should be included on the agenda.

This right must be exercised by duly certified notice to the Company, which must be received at the registered office, at plaza de San Nicolás, 4, 48005, Bilbao, within five days following the publication of this calling.

ATTENDANCE

Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws, holders of 500 or more shares are entitled to attend the General Meeting when these shares are on record in the corresponding accounting register at least five days before the scheduled date of the General Meeting.

As the General Meeting is likely to be held on second call, pursuant to Article 517 of the Corporate Enterprises Act, shareholders must have shares registered in their name no later than June 30, 2024, in order to be able to participate in and vote at the Meeting.

The Company will issue a personalized attendance card indicating the number of shares held to each shareholder entitled to attend who so requires it, giving them access to the venue where the General Meeting is to be held. Requests may be sent to the Shareholder Office, or made via the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com) or at any BBVA branch office in Spain.

Holders of a lower number of shares may group together to reach at least that number of shares, appointing a representative. To do this, shareholders must request the corresponding group card, available at any BBVA branch office in Spain.

In order to confirm the identity of shareholders, or their valid proxies, on entering the venue where the General Meeting is to be held, attendees will be asked to present their attendance card, documents verifying their status as proxy, where applicable, and their Spanish national identity document or any other official document generally accepted for such purposes.

REMOTE ATTENDANCE

The Company has agreed that, in accordance with Article 21 of its Company's Bylaws, attendance to the General Meeting may also take place via remote means.

Remote attendance will take place through the "Remote Attendance Portal", accessible via the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com) and online banking website (www.bbva.es), in accordance with the timeframes and in the format described below. It is envisaged that the General Meeting will be broadcasted live on the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com).

In order to verify the identity of the attendees at the General Meeting, and to guarantee that shareholders can properly exercise their rights, shareholders—or their valid proxies—who wish to attend the General Meeting remotely (hereinafter, "remote attendees") must register and confirm their identity—and that of their proxy, where applicable—on the Remote Attendance Portal prior to the start of the Meeting (hereinafter, the "Accreditation process"), as follows:

- a) remote attendees who are BBVA electronic banking users (who have a multichannel contract with the Bank) may confirm their identity through the online banking website (www.bbva.es) by entering the password they use to access and carry out transactions in the online banking website (www.bbva.es);
- b) remote attendees who are not users of BBVA electronic banking may confirm their identity on the Bank's corporate website (www.bbva.com), under section "Extraordinary General Meeting/Remote Attendance", making use of their Electronic National Identity Document (DNIe) or their digital certificate for natural persons issued by the Royal Mint of Spain (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre-Real Casa de la Moneda — FNMT-RCM) or, in the case of a legal entity, their current and valid electronic certificate of legal entity proxy.

The Accreditation process via Remote Attendance Portal will be enabled on June 21, 2024, and will be closed at 9:00 a.m. on the day on which the General Meeting is held. However, to ensure the correct processing of the supporting documentation verifying their identity and legitimacy, it is recommended that all shareholders—or their proxies—who wish to attend using remotely complete the Accreditation process sufficiently in advance, with it being recommendable to do so no later than July 4, 2024.

In order for the General Meeting to take place in an orderly manner and for the proper management of the remote attendance, once the Accreditation process is completed in due time and form, remote attendees must access the Remote Attendance Portal between 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. on the scheduled day of the Meeting, as follows:

- a) via the online banking website (www.bbva.es) for remote attendees who are BBVA electronic banking users, entering their online banking password;
- b) via the Bank's corporate website (www.bbva.com), under section "Extraordinary General Meeting/Remote Attendance" for remote attendees who are not BBVA electronic banking users, using the credentials generated in the Accreditation process.

This English version is a translation of the original in Spanish for information purposes only. In case of discrepancy, the Spanish original will prevail.

Only remote attendees who have completed the Accreditation process in due time and form and have accessed the Remote Attendance Portal between the indicated times may exercise their rights remotely on the day of the General Meeting.

Remote attendees who, in exercise of the shareholder rights provided for in the Corporate Enterprises Act, wish to request any information or clarification which they deem necessary in relation to items on the agenda, publicly available information that the Company has submitted to the National Securities Market Commission since the last General Meeting; or who wish to submit written proposals under the terms of, and in accordance with, the Corporate Enterprises Act, may do so through the Remote Attendance Portal, on the scheduled day of the General Meeting from 7:00 a.m. and until the General Meeting begins.

In accordance with the provisions of the Corporate Enterprises Act, valid requests for information or clarification submitted by remote attendees will be answered by the Meeting Panel during the meeting, or in writing within seven days of the General Meeting taking place.

Remote attendees' right to vote shall be exercised through the Remote Attendance Portal and in accordance with the provisions of the Bank's General Meeting Regulations. Remote attendees will be able to vote on the proposed resolutions on the agenda items from the moment the remote assistants, on the day on which the Meeting is held, access the Remote Attendance Portal, and until the General Meeting Panel declares the Meeting to be over. The vote on proposed resolutions which, by legal mandate, do not need to be included on the Meeting's agenda and must be put to a vote, shall take place once these proposals are read out by the General Meeting Panel.

For any matters not explicitly covered in this call notice, remote attendance at the General Meeting will be subject to the provisions set out in the General Meeting Regulations and to the rules set out on the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com), on the "Extraordinary General Meeting/Remote Attendance" section.

In any event, shareholders' physical attendance at the venue where the General Meeting is to be held will nullify any actions carried out remotely via the Remote Attendance Portal.

REMOTE VOTING AND PROXIES PRIOR TO THE MEETING

Those shareholders who do not wish to attend the General Meeting can submit their vote or proxy remotely by electronic or written means, prior to the General Meeting being held, as indicated below.

ELECTRONIC VOTING AND PROXIES

Shareholders can exercise their voting and proxy delegation rights by electronic means via the participation applications rolled out on the Bank's corporate website (www.bbva.com), the online banking website (www.bbva.es) or the most up-to-date version of the mobile banking application "BBVA España" (hereinafter, the "BBVA España App"), which is available free of charge at the Play Store and App Store.

In order to prove their identity, and to guarantee the proper exercise of their rights, shareholders who wish to vote or delegate a proxy by electronic means must register and confirm their identity in the following way:

- a) Shareholders who use BBVA electronic banking (who have a multichannel contract with the Bank) can confirm their identity to vote or delegate a proxy electronically, by entering the passcode they use to access and carry out transactions in the online banking website (www.bbva.es) or the BBVA España App.
- b) Shareholders who do not use BBVA electronic banking and shareholders who are legal entities, through their valid proxy, can verify their identity to vote or delegate a proxy electronically through the use of their Electronic National Identity Document (DNIe) or their digital certificate for natural persons issued by the Royal Mint of Spain (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre-Real Casa de la Moneda — FNMT-RCM) or, in the case of a legal entity, their current and valid electronic certificate of legal entity proxy.

Shareholders may exercise their voting and delegation rights by electronic means, prior to the General Meeting, from June 10, 2024 until 10:00 a.m. on the day before the General Shareholders' Meeting is held on first call, i.e. 10:00 a.m. on July 3, 2024, as follows:

- a) for shareholders who use BBVA electronic banking, through the online banking website(www.bbva.es) or the BBVA España App; and*
- b) for shareholders who do not use BBVA electronic banking and shareholders who are legal entities, via the “Extraordinary General Meeting/Electronic Vote and Proxy” section of the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com).*

In both cases, shareholders must fill in the relevant forms and follow the instructions provided in each case in order to exercise each of these rights.

All information relating to remote voting and/or delegation of proxies will be available for its consultation on the “Extraordinary General Meeting” section of the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com).

WRITTEN VOTING AND PROXIES

Shareholders who do not wish to attend the General Meeting, can also remotely cast their vote or submit a proxy delegation in writing, using the voting or delegation form included on the attendance card, which can be requested and submitted at any BBVA branch office in Spain. In this regard, it is hereby stated that any shareholder entitled to attend may be represented at the General Meeting by another person, who need not necessarily be a shareholder.

Shareholders wishing to vote by post may apply to the Company, as from the date of publication of this call notice for the General Meeting, through the Shareholder Office or at any BBVA branch office in Spain, requesting the issue of the relevant document for postal voting in their name. Once completed according to its instructions and within the deadlines established, it must be sent by registered post with acknowledgment of receipt to the Shareholder Office at calle Azul 4, 28050 Madrid, to be processed and counted.

In order to be processed, remotely cast proxies and votes must be received, at least, 24 hours prior to the scheduled date of the General Meeting on first call. Any proxies or votes that arrive after this time will not be counted.

In any case, shareholders must fill in the relevant forms and follow the instructions printed on the attendance card in order to exercise each of these rights.

REVOCATION OF VOTE OR PROXY

Shareholders' —personal or remote— attendance at the General Meeting will revoke any vote or proxy previously submitted.

Additionally, proxies may be revoked at any time by the same means used to delegate them.

RIGHT TO INFORMATION

Shareholders may request, up to five days before the scheduled date of the General Meeting, that directors provide any information or clarifications that they may deem necessary, or submit written queries regarding items on the agenda, information accessible to the public as provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the previous General Meeting.

This English version is a translation of the original in Spanish for information purposes only. In case of discrepancy, the Spanish original will prevail.

Shareholders wishing to exercise their right to information may do so in writing, addressing their correspondence to the Shareholder Office at calle Azul 4, 28050 Madrid, Spain; or by email to the address given in the “Right to Information” section of the “Extraordinary General Meeting” page of the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com), following the instructions therein.

From the time of this calling, any shareholder may request at the registered office (plaza de San Nicolás, 4, Bilbao, Spain) or review on the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com), on the “Extraordinary General Meeting” page, the full texts of the proposed resolutions submitted for the approval of the General Meeting and the directors’ reports on agenda item one, as well as the remaining legal documentation related to the General Meeting.

In addition, shareholders are provided with the legal reports that have been issued since the last General Meeting in connection with the use of the proxy to issue convertible bonds (‘CoCos’), which will also be reported to the General Meeting, and which have been published and made available to shareholders on the occasion of the relevant issue.

Shareholders may obtain and request all the aforementioned documents be delivered or sent to them immediately and free of charge.

Likewise, between the time of publication of this calling and the General Meeting, all documents and information relating to the General Shareholders’ Meeting will be available for consultation in the “Extraordinary General Meeting” section of the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com).

ONLINE SHAREHOLDER FORUM

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 539.2 of the Corporate Enterprises Act, for the calling of the General Meeting, BBVA has set up an Online Shareholders Forum (hereinafter, the “Forum”) on the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com), for the legally established purpose, which individual shareholders and duly authorized voluntary associations of shareholders may access with due protections, in accordance with Article 539.4 of the Corporate Enterprises Act.

The Forum may be used to publish proposals that are intended to be submitted to the Meeting, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions, requests to second these proposals, initiatives to achieve the percentage of votes required to exercise the minority rights established by Law and offers or calls for voluntary proxies, in accordance with the instructions published on the Bank’s corporate website (www.bbva.com) for this calling.

The Forum is not a channel for communication between the Company and its shareholders and is intended solely to facilitate communication between BBVA shareholders for the calling of the General Meeting before it is held. As such, the Forum is not a channel to be used for attending the General Meeting remotely.

In order to prove their identity, shareholders who wish to access and use the Forum must have a passcode. In so doing, shareholders must follow the relevant rules and instructions provided that, for such purpose, and in each case, are available on the “Extraordinary General Meeting” section of the Bank’s corporate website (www.bbva.com).

To register in the Forum, shareholders who are electronic banking users (who have a multichannel contract with the Bank) may log on via the online banking web page (www.bbva.es), entering the same credentials they use to access the online banking website (www.bbva.es) and use its online banking features.

Shareholders who do not use electronic banking and shareholders who are legal entities, through their valid proxy, may register and obtain a passcode to log on to the Forum, through the Bank’s corporate website (www.bbva.com), under section “Extraordinary General Meeting/Online Shareholders Forum”, by using their Electronic National Identity Document (DNIe) or their digital certificate for natural persons issued by the Royal Mint of Spain (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre-Real Casa de la Moneda — FNMT-RCM) or, in the case of a legal entity, their current and valid electronic certificate of legal entity proxy.

SUSPENSION OF ELECTRONIC SYSTEMS

The Bank will not be liable for any damages that may be incurred by shareholders or their proxies as a result of any breakdowns, overloads, line failures, connection faults or other eventualities of the same or similar sort, beyond the Bank's control, that may prevent the use of the mechanisms enabled for shareholders to exercise, via remote means of communication, their rights regarding the General Meeting.

The foregoing applies notwithstanding the adoption of the measures required in each situation, in particular when this is advisable or necessary for technical or security reasons, trying to ensure that shareholders or their proxies can exercise their rights.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Shareholders may consult the Company's Bylaws and the General Meeting Regulations on the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com) for information relating to the General Meeting that is not provided in this notice.

Likewise, for more information, shareholders can contact the Shareholder Office at calle Azul, 4, 28050, Madrid, Spain, from 09:00 a.m. to 06:00 p.m., Monday through Friday; telephone the Shareholder Helpline at (+34) 91 224 98 21 from 08:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Monday through Friday; or send an email to the mailbox accionistas@bbva.com; or may check the information included in the "Frequently-Asked Questions" document, available on the "Extraordinary General Meeting" on the Bank's corporate website (www.bbva.com).

Shareholders are informed that the Company's corporate website (www.bbva.com) will be kept up-to-date with the measures that may be taken for holding the General Meeting and may be of interest to shareholders or their representatives.

NOTARY PUBLIC AT THE GENERAL MEETING

The Board of Directors has resolved to require the presence of a notary public to record the minutes of the General Meeting, pursuant to Article 203 of the Corporate Enterprises Act and Article 101 of the Commercial Registry Regulations.

PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

In accordance with the provisions of Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, on Personal Data Protection and digital rights guarantee, BBVA will process the shareholders' personal data and, where applicable, that of its proxies in accordance with the provisions of the document on processing of personal data which can be consulted at the following link: shareholdersandinvestors.bbva.com/PTDA. Rights to access, amend, oppose, suppress, transfer and limit processing may be exercised in accordance with the aforementioned document.

NOTE

Shareholders are informed that, in the event that, between the calling and the scheduled date for holding the Meeting, there are extraordinary circumstances—beyond the Company's control—which make impossible holding the General Meeting at the planned venue referred to in this call notice, or at a different venue to the one initially envisaged within the same municipal district, the General Meeting would be held entirely remotely, this is, without the physical attendance of the shareholders or their proxies, in accordance with the means, timeframes and procedures already established in the "Remote Attendance" section of this call notice, supplemented by the additional requirements set forth in the applicable legal and statutory provisions applicable to this type of meetings, which have been published on the “Extraordinary General Meeting/Remote Attendance” section of the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com).

The Company, in this case, will inform shareholders, through the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com) and the daily press, as soon as it were reasonably possible, of the existing extraordinary circumstances and the measures adopted in relation to the holding of the General Meeting.

Shareholders are informed that the General Meeting will be streamed on the Company’s corporate website (www.bbva.com).

THE GENERAL MEETING IS SCHEDULED TO BE HELD, ON SECOND CALL, ON JULY 5, 2024 AT THE TIME AND PLACE INDICATED, UNLESS SHAREHOLDERS ARE NOTIFIED OTHERWISE THROUGH THE DAILY PRESS AND THE BANK’S CORPORATE WEBSITE (www.bbva.com).

Bilbao, May 31, 2024, the General Secretary and Secretary of the Board of Directors.
